SHONA LÁ FHÉILE PÁDRAIG! Irish-American Heritage Month

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Dear Brothers,

The growth of our Division continues. During our March Division meeting, a Shamrock Degree instruction was completed for our new and existing division brothers. Congratulations to Brothers Rob Burke, Bill Vanderveer, Jack Grey, Jeff Everett, Francis Connors and Dave McLaughlin for making this degree. A special thank you to Brother Bill Phillips, Financial Secretary Jeff Banks, Vice President Dan Mulhern, Marshall Shawn Lenahan and Sentry Paul O'Brien for supporting me in making this Shamrock Degree possible.

During the month of March, Brothers Bill Halpin, Hugh O'Brien, Des Flanigan, Paul O'Brien, Neil Buttimer and John Hogan have dedicated themselves to exhibit Irish American History Month (IAHM). Their efforts shine a wonderful light on our heritage and remarkable presence throughout American history. The locations for the month long events are the Central Rappahannock Regional Library in Fredericksburg, Salem Church Branch Library, and at the Wilderness Library in Orange County.

Thus far, our division has participated in the following events: Mass at historic St. Mary Catholic Church in Alexandria (8 AM) followed by the Alexandria St. Patrick Day Parade, the 14th Annual St. Patrick's Day parade sponsored by the Blue and Gray and Adventure Brewery Brewing Companies located in Fredericksburg, and the 38th Annual Gaelic Mass at the Cathedral of St. Thomas Moore in Arlington. Another Mass will be said by our very own Division Chaplain Father Kevin Fimian at St.

Patrick Catholic Church in Spotsylvania on Thursday, 17 March at 6:30 PM. I look forward to seeing everyone there.

Detail on the Trip for Two to Ireland kick off last weekend (March 12) was a success selling tickets at both the Blue and Gray/Adventure Brewery St. Patrick's Day parade and at St. Patrick's Church. I am very thankful for Vice President Dan Mulhern for his support in making this Raffle possible. Please continue to support his efforts and reach out to the officers of our division regarding the sale of raffle tickets. The drawing for the Trip for Two to Ireland will take place on September 17 at the Oktoberfest which will be an event sponsored on by Adventure Brewery. Please reach out to Brother Mulhern at djmulhern1@msn.com if you have any questions or want tickets to sell.

Please continue also supporting me as your chairman of the 3rd Annual Shamrock Golf Tournament. The date for the tournament will be on Monday, April 18th and the location is at Meadows Farms Golf Course in Locust Grove Virginia. We are still in need of sponsors, players and donations to make the event raffle successful and exciting. In everything we do for charity, getting many hands to support will make this event highly successful and increase our capability to give to charities in the Spotsylvania and Fredericksburg area. I also have a cover letter otherwise known as a 'beg letter' which includes two pages of information for the Shamrock Golf Tournament to provide any volunteers to solicit sponsors and donations for the raffle. Please let me know either by phone 540.846.1844 or by e-mail ramslji@comcast.net and a special thanks to the Brothers who are already assisting me now.

Irish Freedom Quote on Easter 1916:

We are ready to die and shall die cheerfully and proudly, you must not grieve for all of this. We have preserved Ireland's honor and our own. Our deeds of last week are the most splendid in Ireland's history. People will say things of us now, but we shall be remembered by posterity and blessed by unborn generations. You cannot conquer Ireland. You cannot extinguish the Irish passion for freedom. If our deed has not been sufficient to win freedom, then our children will win it by a better deed. Ireland unfree shall never be at peace. Pádraig Pearse (1879-1916)

OUR IRISH HERITAGE

“The Celt would forfeit his title to the respect of the civilized world, did he not fight with all his heart and all his soul and all his cunning against the empire which has despoiled him and murdered his kin, now with arms, now with artificial famine. There can be no peace between the two people until either Ireland is a desert or is free. It is war to the knife, and the knife to the hilt. There can be neither truce nor compromise.”

SIXTH IN OUR SERIES OF IRISH PATRIOTS - EASTER 1916

Seán MacDiarmada

Born and raised in rural County Leitrim surrounded by signs of Irish history. There was an ancient sweat-house, Mass rocks from the penal times and the persecutions of the 17th and 18th centuries, and deserted abodes as an aftermath of An Gorta Mor in the 1840s. He was educated by the Irish Christian Brothers.

In 1908 he moved to Dublin, by which time he was already involved in several Irish separatist and cultural organisations that promoted the use of the Irish language and the Gaelic revival, including Sinn Féin, the Irish Republican Brotherhood (IRB), the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Gaelic League. . He was national organizer for Sinn Féin, and later manager of the radical newspaper Irish Freedom. Within the Irish Republican Brotherhood, he was a close colleague and friend of veteran republican Tom Clarke. He was promoted to the Supreme Council of the IRB and became an IRB national organizer. Shortly thereafter Mac Diarmada was stricken with polio and forced to walk with a cane.

In 1913 Mac Diarmada was one of the original members of the Irish Volunteers and worked to bring that organization under IRB control. In May 1915 Mac Diarmada gave a speech against Irishmen enlisting into the British Army. He was arrested for violating the 'Defense of the Realm Act'. Following his release from jail, he joined the secret Military Committee of the IRB, which was responsible for planning the rising.

Due to his disability, Mac Diarmada took little part in the fighting of Easter week, but was stationed at the headquarters in the General Post Office (GPO). Following the surrender, he nearly escaped execution by blending in with the large body of prisoners. However, he was betrayed by Daniel Hoey (Hoey was killed by Michael Collins's Squad).

Following a court-martial Mac Diarmada was executed by firing squad on 12 May at the age of 33. Before his execution, Mac Diarmada wrote:

"I feel happiness the like of which I have never experienced. I die that the Irish nation might live!"

HERITAGE COMMITTEE AT WORK

NEW BOOK! The Immortal Irishman, by Timothy Egan ($17 at Amazon.com)

Exiled from Ireland, he won fame in the Civil War and died mysteriously on the Montana frontier. From best-selling author Timothy Egan comes the epic story of one of the most fascinating and colorful Irishmen in nineteenth-century America.

The Irish-American story, with all its twists and triumphs, is told through the improbable life of one man. A dashing young orator during the Great Famine of the 1840s, in which a million of his Irish countrymen died, Thomas Francis Meagher led a failed uprising against British rule, for which he was banished to Tasmania. He escaped and six months later was heralded in the streets of New York – the hero, back from the dead, at the dawn of the great Irish immigration to America.

Meagher's rebirth in America included leading the Irish Brigade in many of the fiercest battles of the Civil War. Twice shot from his horse while leading charges, left for dead in the Virginia mud, Meagher's dream was that Irish-American troops, seasoned by war, would return to Ireland and liberate their homeland from British rule.

The hero's last chapter, as territorial governor of Montana, was a romantic quest for a true home in the far frontier. His death has long been a mystery to which Egan brings haunting, colorful new evidence.

Irish-America Heritage Month and Centenary of the 1916 Easter Rising were featured in area parades, in a Free Lance Star article (Communities Section, March 6th) and at four area libraries.
