Half-Way to St. Patrick's Day Celebration And the Raffle Ticket Drawing

The COL Cunningham Division of the AOH and the Daughters of Erin of the LAOH jointly hosted the annual Half-Way to St. Patrick's Day Party at O'Faolain's Irish Pub on Thursday, October 18th. The highlight of the party was the drawing for the winner of the COL Cunningham Division's Trip for Two to Ireland Raffle. Along with the raffle ticket drawing there were dozens of door prizes, great food, great beverages, and live entertainment. It was a great night of fun for everyone who attended. Special thanks to Brother Mike Egan who purchased a bottle of 18-year-old Jameson to use for a special toast by the Division.

The COL Cunningham Division was proud to welcome special guests Father Mark Moretti from Christ the Redeemer Parish, and Division Chaplain Father Joseph Farrell from St. Timothy's Parish. Father Farrell did the honors of drawing the winning ticket for the raffle. This year's winner, Daniel Legarda, is a parishioner at Our Lady of Hope Parish and a member of the Knights of Columbus. Our Lady of Hope School is one of the recipients of the Cunningham Division's annual Catholic Education Grants. Congratulations to our winner and to all the people who bought tickets in support of the Cunningham Division Charities. We like to think that every ticket is a winner because of all the good work that is done by the Division's education grants, seminarian support, and charitable gifts. A special thank you to all the men and women of the Cunningham Division and Daughters of Erin who sold tickets. Because of hard work by a lot of brothers and LAOH sisters, this year's raffle ticket sales set a record which means there will be more funds to use for division charities and activities.

The following pictures are just a few of the many attendees and highlights from this year's party.

2018 National Convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians

The COL Cunningham Division, in fact the entire State of Virginia, were well represented at this year's bi-annual national convention of the AOH held in Louisville, Kentucky. The Daughters of Erin were also represented at the LAOH convention held at the same time. (See the separate story and photos later in this edition of the Chronicles.) COL Cunningham brothers at the convention were Past Presidents Jay McCarthy and Bob Fay, and Dennis Corrigan. Past Presidents McCarthy and Fay were attending in their roles as Virginia State AOH Board members (Vice President and Treasurer respectfully). Brother Corrigan attended as a delegate for the COL Cunningham Division. Special thanks to Brother Corrigan for stepping up to be a delegate and his service at the convention.

The nation convention is held every two years, alternating years with the individual state conventions. The convention featured the election of national officers, review of proposals before the delegates, summaries of AOH business for the last two years and the installation of the newly elected officers. Social activities of the convention included golf, tours of Louisville sites, hospitality gatherings, and the occasional party or two. A great time was had by all of the COL Cunningham and Daughters of Erin delegates as can be seen in the photos below.

2018 Education Scholarships to our Catholic Schools

Perhaps the most significant charity supported by the COL Cunningham Division is our support of Catholic education through the awarding of Education Grants to two students at each of our three Catholic elementary schools. The educational grants are the biggest single monetary amount budgeted each year in our Charities Budget and has become a significant public display of our pride in Catholic Schools and our deep appreciation to the Parishes that support us.

The year's award recipients were Megan Arens and Jackson Herrera at St. Theresa school, Jack Duren and Sam Kilkeary at St. Joseph's School, and Melissa Vinh and Mikael Fissehazion at Our Lady of Hope School.

Megan Arens receiving her award from Division President Cole Slattery, with Father Richard Guest and the school Principal.

Jackson Herrera receiving his award from President Slattery with Father Guest and the school principal.

St. Joseph School award recipients Jack Duren and Sam Kilkeary with Past President Jay McCarthy.

Our Lady of Hope School award recipients Melissa Vinh and Mikael Fissehazion at Our Lady of Hope School with Past President Bob Fay (Mikael could not be present so his younger brother Ankael accepted the award on his behalf).

Francis and Theresa Get Married

Its not often we publicize a wedding in pages of the Cunningham Chronicles, but this was something special. COL Cunningham brother Francis Thornton and Daughters of Erin sister Theresa Beabes were married at Our Lady of Hope Catholic church with family, friends and three priests in attendance. Yes, three priests! Who gets three priests? Maybe an ambassador or head of state, and Francis and Theresa. The wedding Mass was concelebrated by Father William Saunders, Pastor of Our Lady of Hope; Father Joseph Farrell, Parochial Vicar of Our Lady of Hope and Chaplain of the COL Cunningham Division; and Father Timothy Harris, immediate past Chaplain of the COL Cunningham Division. Congratulations to the new Mr. and Mrs. Thornton.

Father Farrell, Father Saunders, Francis and Therese Thornton, and Father Harris.

The annual Ballyshaner's Irish Festival was held in the riverfront park in Alexandria on August 25th under sunny skies and warm temperatures. AOH brothers and LAOH sisters turned out in force to help sell raffle tickets for the Trip for Two to Ireland Raffle. It was a great festival, as always, and a great source of ticket sales.

COL Cunningham Division, Hibernian of the Second Quarter

Mr. Dennis Corrigan
COL Thomas J. Cunningham Jr. Div.
Ashburn, VA

June 13, 2018

Brother Dennis:

On behalf of the officers and members of the COL Thomas J. Cunningham Jr. Div. of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, it gives me great pleasure to announce you as the Division's Hibernian of the Quarter for the second Quarter of the 2018 fraternal year.

Since joining the Division, you have not only completed the degrees of the Order and have emerged as a steadfast, loyal, and trustworthy Leader and Brother when it comes to selfless service to the Division and our Order.

As our Division's Marshall, you have robustly taken a leadership role by bringing order and discipline to our meeting structure and as a candidate leader during our exemplification of the Shamrock Degree.

Your donation of a 10X10 tent to the division provides welcome shelter to our Brothers engaged in offsite charities such as the annual Ballyshaner's festival.

Your wiliness, at your own expense, to represent the Division as a Delegate to the 2018 AOH National Convention in Louisville KY is greatly appreciated and will have an impact for the good upon our Division and the Virginia State Board.

Your sustained efforts continue to have a tremendous impact upon our members as a sterling example of faithful service as evidenced by your dedicated participation to numerous division charitable and social events.

Your impact to the Cunningham Division is profound and deeply appreciated.

Congratulations and thank you for a job well done.

The delegation attended the national LAOH meetings, voted on new national officers, and participated in the bi-annual business meeting. While in Louisville they also managed to squeeze in some time for touring, dining out and enjoyment of the many AOH/ LAOH parties.

Irish Wit & Wisdom

PUSHING CASEY

Paddy and his wife were awakened at 3:00 am by a loud pounding on the door.

Paddy got up and went to the door where drunken Casey, standing in the pouring rain, was asking for a push.

"Not a chance," said Paddy, "it is 3:00 in the morning and your drunk."

He slammed the door and returned to bed.

"Who was that?" asked his wife.

"Just Casey, drunk as a lord asking for a push," he answered.

"Did you help him?" she asked.

"No, I did not, it's 3 am in the morning and it's bloody pouring rain out there

"Well, you have a short memory," said his wife.
"Can't you remember about three months ago when we broke down,

Casey and Sean helped us? I think you should help him, and you should be ashamed of yourself! God loves drunken people too you know."

Paddy did as he was told, got dressed, and went out into the pounding rain.

He called out into the dark, "Casey, are you still there?"

"Yes," came back the answer.

"Do you still need a push?" called out Paddy.

"Yes, please!" came the reply from the dark.

"Where are you laddie?" asked Paddy.

"Over here on the swing," replied Casey.

The Talking Dog

A tourist is driving around the back roads on the beautiful West coast of Ireland and he sees a sign in front of an old cottage: 'Talking Dog For Sale'.

He rings the bell and the owner appears and tells him the dog is in the backyard.

The guy goes into the backyard and sees a nice looking Irish Setter sitting there.

'You talk?' he asks.

'Aye, I certainly do,' the dog replies.

After the guy recovers from the shock of hearing a dog talk, he says 'So, what's your story?'

The Irish Setter looks up and says, 'Well, I come from the States and discovered that I could talk when I was pretty young. I wanted to help the government, so... I told the CIA.

In no time at all they had me jetting from country to country, sitting in rooms with spies and world leaders, because no one figured a dog would be eavesdropping.'

'I was one of their most valuable spies for eight years running...

But the jetting around really tired me out, and I knew I wasn't getting any younger so I decided to settle down. I signed up for a job at the airport to do some undercover security, wandering near suspicious characters and listening in. I uncovered some incredible dealings and was awarded a batch of medals.'

'I got married, moved here to Ireland, had a mess of puppies, and now I'm just retired.'

The guy is amazed. He goes back in and asks the owner what he wants for the dog.

'Ten Euro,' the guy says.

'Ten Euro? This dog is amazing! Why on earth are you selling him so cheap?'

'Because he's a liar and I'm sick of his Blarney! He's never been out of the yard.'

At a Snails Pace!

Mrs. O'Reilly returned home from a vacation to France where she had taken a cooking class. She tells her husband Paddy she is going to prepare him a special meal and he is to go down to Sean's Market and buy two dozen escargot, which she explains to Paddy are snails. Mrs. O'Reilly admonishes Paddy to come right home, no stops at the pub, because she wants to have escargot for dinner. Paddy buys the snails and is on his way home but alas, his route takes him right by his favorite pub. Just one he tells himself. Well, perhaps another he says after having the first pint. The company is good, the tales are tall, and Paddy finds himself having three or four. As Paddy heads home he realizes it has become dark and knows his lovely wife will be waiting and sharpening her tongue for him. As Paddy opens the gate to home the porch light comes on and he hears the door begin to open. Paddy quickly empties the bag of escargot on the ground and says in a loud voice "Come on now lads! You're almost there."

The Donation

Father O'Malley answers the phone.

'Hello, is this Father O'Malley?'

'It is!'

'This is the IRS. Can you help us?'

'I can!'

'Do you know a Ted Houlihan?'

'I do!'

'Is he a member of your congregation?'

'He is!'

'Did he donate $10,000 to the church?'

'He will!'

Choices

_Wife: 'Do you want dinner?'

Husband: 'Sure! What are my choices?'

Wife: 'Yes or no.'

Lemon Squeeze

There was a religious young woman named Brigid who went to Confession.

Upon entering the confessional, she said, 'Forgive me, Father, for I have sinned.'

The priest said, 'Confess your sins and be forgiven.'

The young woman said, 'Last night my boyfriend Sean made mad passionate love to me seven times.'

The priest thought long and hard and then said, 'Squeeze seven lemons into a glass and then drink the juice.'

The young woman asked, 'Will this cleanse me of my sins?'

The priest said, 'No, but it will wipe that smile off of your face.'

Senility

An elderly man went to his doctor and said, 'Doc, I think I'm getting senile. Several times lately, I have forgotten to zip up.'

'That's not senility,' replied the doctor. 'Senility is when you forget to zip down.'

The Outdoorsman

During his physical, the doctor asked Casey about his daily activity level.

He described a typical day this way:

"Well, yesterday afternoon, I waded along the edge of a lake, drank eight beers, escaped from wild dogs in the heavy brush, jumped away from an aggressive rattlesnake, marched up and down several rocky hills, stood in a patch of poison ivy, crawled out of quicksand and took four leaks behind big trees."

Inspired by the story, the doctor said, "You must be one hell of an outdoorsman!"

"Not really," he replied, "I'm just a lousy golfer." !

Patriotic Tithing

The Pastor was preoccupied with thoughts of how he was going to ask the congregation to come up with more money than they were expecting for repairs to the church building. Therefore, he was annoyed to find that the regular organist was sick and a substitute had been brought in at the last minute.

The substitute wanted to know what to play.

"Here's a copy of the service," he said impatiently "But, you'll have to think of something to play after I make the announcement about the finances."

During the homily, the Pastor paused and said, "Brothers and Sisters, we are in great difficulty; the roof repairs cost twice as much as we expected and we need $4,000 more. Any of you who can pledge $100 or more, please stand up."

At that moment, the substitute organist played "The Star Spangled Banner."

And that is how the substitute became the regular organist!

Traffic Ticket(s)

A police officer pulls over a speeding car. The officer says, "I clocked you at 80 miles per hour, sir."

Mulligan, the driver says, "Goodness, officer, I had it on cruise control at 60; perhaps your radar gun needs calibrating."

Not looking up from her knitting the wife says: "Now don't be silly dear" -- you know that this car doesn't have cruise control"

As the officer writes out the ticket, Mulligan looks over at his wife and growls, "Can't you please keep your mouth shut for once!?"

The wife smiles demurely and says, "Well dear you should be thankful your radar detector went off when it did or your speed would have been higher."

As the officer makes out the second ticket for the illegal radar detector unit, Mulligan glowers at his wife and says through clenched teeth,

"Woman, can't you keep your mouth shut?"

The officer frowns and says, "And I notice that you're not wearing your seat belt, sir. That's an automatic $75 fine" Mulligan says, "Yeah, well, you see, officer, I had it on, but I took it off when you pulled me over so that I could get my license out of my back pocket."

The wife says, "Now, dear, you know very well that you didn't have your seat belt on. You never wear your seat belt when you're driving."

And as the police officer is writing out the third ticket, Mulligan turns to his wife and barks, "WILL YOU PLEASE SHUT UP??"

The officer looks over at the woman and asks, "Does your husband always talk to you this way, Ma'am?"
I love this part..... "Only when he's been drinking.!"

CHRISTIAN ONE-LINERS

People are funny; they want the front of the bus, the middle of the road, and the back of the church. Some minds are like concrete, thoroughly mixed up and permanently set.

Be ye fishers of men. You catch 'em - He'll clean 'em.

Stop, Drop, and Roll won't work in Hell.

Coincidence is when God chooses to remain anonymous.

Prayer: Don't give God instructions, just report for duty.

If God is your Co-pilot, swap seats!

AOH Jackets, Shirts, Sashes and Name Badges

As in most organizations, there is AOH specific attire. If you are new to the Division or if you have just never gotten around to getting one of our great COL Cunningham Division Shirts, or one of those Kelly-Green Sport Coats, this information is for you.

Wearing of the Green (When and what to wear):

For semi-formal/formal occasions, the AOH “uniform” is green sport coat, tri-Color sash, white shirt, Irish theme tie, black trousers and optional ball cap. These occasions include AOH State and National conventions, Masses, funerals, AOH dinners, parades, and other public events. The jackets are also appropriate at all Division meetings and events.

For informal events (i.e. Raffle ticket sales, Parish events, Division outings (ball games, picnics, meetings, etc.) the Division logo polo or sweatshirts (optional ball cap) are appropriate. Many brothers have already ordered the division polo and sweat shirts.

Cunningham Division Attire:

Name Badges:

The Division name badges can be order directly from President Cole Slattery at any meeting or by email. President Slattery’s email is on the last page of the edition of the Chronicles. If you are a new member to the Cunningham Division your name is automatically added to the next order of badges.

Name badges should be worn at all Division and AOH events, and when selling raffle tickets. You don’t need to be wearing a Division polo shirt or green jacket to wear a name badge. The badge has your name and identifies you as a member of the Colonel Cunningham Division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Green Jacket: Brothers procure their own green jackets and sashes.

One source: http://blazerdepot.com/pages/mens_blazer/augustagreenblazer.html. Visit the website to see what they have, be sure that you know the size you want; then call the 800 number to order. We have been told that if you tell them you’re with the AOH and the $5.00 small order fee can be waived. Kelly green is the official Color.

AOH Sash: The AOH tri-Color sash represents the national flag of Ireland and should be worn over the right shoulder (green closest to jacket Collar) crossing to the left hip. Tri-Color AOH sashes are available from:

- LAOH Sister Patricia Ankrom. Email Patricia at traceysbydesign@aol.com
- D. & E. Morrissey (954-426-3514) <http://www.hibernians-shamrock.com/donations.html>
(The National Hibernian usually has an ad for D & E Morrissey.)

Division Polo Shirts: We’re sorry to report that the dear lady who had been making our division polo shirts for years, Mrs. Deirdre Noonan at Sew Fabulous Embroidery, passed away recently. Vice President Tim Kinslow took charge of locating a new source for the shirts and the first orders have already arrived. For information on ordering division polo shirts please contact Vice President Kinslow, tpkinslow@yahoo.com, or come to the next general meeting to learn the details for placing an order.

Return of the Cunningham Chronicles

The Cunningham Chronicles is named after our original Division newsletter that was started in 1998. This version of the newsletter is a little bit different than the original in that it is intended to be distributed by email to all the members, friends, and sponsors of the Colonel Cunningham Division. Our hope is to publish the Chronicles every quarter or so. We want to include news of the Division and our members. Please forward information to us if you are taking any trips to Ireland, have any stories of personal Irish history to share, news of family events (births, deaths, marriages, special anniversaries, awards, etc.). We would like to think of our Division and our brothers as a big Irish Catholic family, and we would like to share our family stories and news.

If you have any member news, photos, suggestions, ideas, stories, better jokes, prayer requests, etc., please send them on to Bob Anderson at the Chronicles email address: cunninghamnews1916@gmail.com

Thank you to all our contributors and photographers for this edition of the Chronicles; especially Cole Slattery, Jay McCarthy, and Bob Fay.

Friendship, Unity, and Christian Charity*
