“IRISH AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH”

2023
Division President's Message

Dennis Mulligan

President's Message

Worthy Hibernian Brothers

Happy March 1st. March is St Patrick's month for all Irish and non-Irish people alike. President Biden and Governor Youngkin continue the tradition of declaring March as Irish-American Heritage Month.

This is also a great time for Irish Catholic men to join our Division.

The Dooley Division has invited us to join them on St Patrick's Day, Friday, March 17, for the 9am Mass at St Patrick's Catholic Church on Church Hill at 213 North 25th St, Richmond VA. Immediately following the Mass, there will be refreshments and coffee in the church basement. Bring your green blazer if you have one.

On Sunday, March 12, 2023, our St. Patrick's Dinner will be held at O'Toole's Restaurant at 4800 Forest Hill Ave. Richmond VA. 23225. I hope to see you all there. A reminder to sign up will be sent soon, and thanks to those who have already signed up.

And, of course, the Church Hill Irish Festival will be held on March 25th-26th. We're looking for a great turnout to help run the booth and recruit new members and to sell raffle tickets!

And a special thanks to Brother Jack Simila, who has done a great job as institutions from each of these areas. It is believed to have been created c. 800 AD. The text of the Gospels is largely drawn from the Vulgate, although it also includes several passages drawn from the earlier versions of the Bible known as the Vetus Latina. It is regarded as a masterwork of Western calligraphy and the pinnacle of Insular illumination. The manuscript takes its name from the Abbey of Kells, County Meath, which was its home for centuries.

The illustrations and ornamentation of the Book of Kells surpass those of other Insular Gospel books in extravagance and complexity. The decoration combines traditional Christian iconography with the ornate swirling motifs typical of Insular art. Figures of humans, animals and mythical beasts, together with Celtic knots and interlacing patterns in vibrant colours, enliven the manuscript's pages. Many of these minor decorative elements are imbued with Christian symbolism and so further emphasise the themes of the major illustrations. The manuscript today comprises 340 leaves or folios; the recto and verso of each leaf total 680 pages. Since 1953, it has been bound in four volumes, 330 mm by 250 mm (13 inches by 9.8 inches). The leaves are high-quality calf vellum; the unprecedentedly elaborate ornamentation that covers them includes ten full-page illustrations and text pages that are vibrant with decorated initials and interlinear miniatures, marking the furthest extension of the anti-classical and energetic qualities of Insular art. The Insular majuscule script of the text appears to be the work of at least three different scribes. The lettering is in iron gall ink, and the colours used were derived from a wide range of substances, some of which were imported from distant lands.

The manuscript is in Trinity College Library, Dublin which usually has on display at any given time two of the four volumes it is now divided into, open to show a major illustration from one and a typical text page from the other, rotated frequently. A digitised version of the entire manuscript may also be seen online.

Our Division History

The Msgr. Charles Kelly, Jr. Division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians was formed in December, 2009 and conducted it's first meeting on January 21, 2010 at St. John Neumann Church, Powhatan, Virginia. The next few meetings were taken up with election of officers and the many procedural items needed to get our group started.

Since that time we continue to grow, adding new members and supporting and donating to Catholic schools and Churches in the area, in line with our commitment to Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity.
