Pray to Mary Immaculate Patroness of the United States for the strength of mind and heart to defend our religious freedoms, for national moral guidance, and that our country will always be “one nation under God”. This is critically important in this time of contrary moral agendas and the threats from patently evil elements.

Nollaig Shona Daoibh!

Christmas greeting in Irish is Nollaig Shona Duit or Nollaig Shona Daoibh [plural]

The Christmas Season begins on 8 December, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. On that day Christmas trees are decorated. The season comes to an end on Epiphany, 6 January or “Little Christmas”.

A tradition in the west of Ireland relates to St. Stephens day, the day after Christmas. There this a tradition is the “Wren Parade”. In the Gaelic tradition people dress up and chase a symbol of the wren through town. In the “olden days” dressing up involved painting faces black and killing an actual wren. Young boys would go from house to house collecting money for ... the Clancy Brothers have the answer (control click on youtube.com)

President's Corner

Brothers all - I hope all of you had a wonderful Thanksgiving! Before looking forward to the end of the year, I want to take a moment to thank Father O'Keefe and our Division Chaplain, Deacon Aaron Zaccagnino, for celebrating our annual Memorial Mass at St. Jude Church on 14 Nov. I strongly encourage you to try to attend this event next November so we can remember and pray for our deceased brothers just as you will want to be remembered and prayed over when your time comes.

There are only a couple of Division events remaining for the rest of the year.

- First we have our annual wreath presentation ceremony at the Irish Brigade Memorial on Sunday, 10 Dec, at 12 noon. The ceremony does not last long so please bring your family and friends to the Fredericksburg City Dock not later than 11:45am so we can get organized along with the Civil War reenactors who are planning to attend as well. Following the wreath laying ceremony, we plan to enjoy some fellowship while having lunch at the Colonial Tavern.
- Second, on Monday 11 Dec, starting at 6:30pm in the auditorium of the Main Fredericksburg Library on Caroline Street, I invite you to attend a lecture sponsored by the Irish Culture Society. The speaker is Dr. Christopher Shannon of Christendom College on the "Fighting Irish: Songs and Stories of the Irish Americans during the U.S. Civil War". This event is open to the public so please pass the invitation on to your family and friends. There is more information about this event at our website at aohfredericksburg.org.
- The final event of the year is our December business meeting on Tuesday, 19 Dec., when Virginia State President Bob Fay will install our new Division officers for the 2024-2025 term.

In conclusion, it has been an honor for me to be your Division President for the past two years and I ask that you continue your generous support for the incoming Division President, Dennis O'Reilly, the officers, and the rest of your Division brothers for the next two years. I certainly am looking forward to continuing the work of the Division as we continue the celebration of our Irish heritage. Sláinte!

In our motto of Friendship, Unity, and Christian Charity,
Bob Fitzgerald

News From the Irish Culture Society of Virginia

Irish in the U.S. Civil War in Song and Story, Monday December 11th

Just in time for the Battle of Fredericksburg anniversary, the Irish Culture Society of Virginia presents “Fighting Irish: Songs and Stories of the Irish Americans during the U.S. Civil War”, a lecture by Dr. Christopher Shannon. The presentation is scheduled for 6:30PM, December 11th in the Central Rappahannock Regional Library auditorium located at 1201 Caroline Street, Fredericksburg. Admission is free, donations will be gratefully accepted.

The Irish who fought in the American Civil War (1861-1865) often did so in distinctly Irish military units, such as the New York “Fighting 69th” Regiment and the Irish Brigade. Fighting for the cause of preserving the Union, Irish American soldiers also fought to express pride in their ethnic heritage. These dual loyalties found expression in a substantial body of songs celebrating the achievements and camaraderie of Irish American soldiers. This lecture tells the story of these Irish American soldiers through the songs they sang, songs that affirmed their dual identity as fully Irish and fully American.

Dr Shannon earned his PhD in American Studies, from Yale University. Later he served as a visiting lecturer at Yale, the University of Rochester, and the University of Notre Dame. Currently, Dr Shannon is a professor of history at Christendom College, Front Royal, Virginia
